

Kim Saddler, Kangaroo Flat Primary School

Congratulations to our Principal Kim Saddler on being named as one of the four finalists in the Outstanding Primary Principal category. The entire school community of KFPS recognise the tremendous leadership you provide for our school. We thank you for all that you do at KFPS.

Principal of Kangaroo Flat Primary School, Kim Saddler, leads a learning community where equity and a strong sense of belonging enhance the education of every child.

As a school leader, Kim uses her expertise to focus collaborative effort on improving the quality and impact of teaching and learning, helping to break the link between students' disadvantage and poor achievement. Solution focused and pro-active in reducing barriers to education, Kim involves families at every step of the learning and support.

Working across school and pre-school settings, Kim has initiated a therapeutic model along with the School-Wide Positive Behaviour Support framework, to support oral language development and students' self-regulation and transition.

Her innovative student and family-centred approach is evidenced by significant improvement in students' health and wellbeing data.

Improving the academic and wellbeing outcomes of students regardless of their start in life and family circumstances, Kim's leadership of the school is ensuring an inclusive and effective educational provision for the wider benefit of all.
